Wine and Food

At Sixpenny our list is chosen with an emphasis on styles that complement our food. This means a focus on light, fresh wines with texture and concentration of flavor.

Throughout the wine list we have highlighted a selection of wines from growers who we feel provide the most intelligent food pairing opportunities. Some are well known, others less so, but all are small producers who like us, are concerned with quality over quantity.

Our Wine Pairing

| Seven Course Menu Seven tastes of approximately 75mls | 105 |

Our Champagne

We have chosen to pour Champagne Laherte Frères as our house champagne. Created in 1889, they own 10 hectares of premium champagne terroir, in 10 different villages. Laherte Frères is registered as a négociant-manipulant, but in reality this is true grower champagne, and all of the wines are estate-grown.

In the winery and the vineyard Aurélien Laherte favours labour-intensive traditional techniques. The results speak for themselves; beautiful champagne, concentrated, balanced and refreshing.

Grüner Veltliner

The native white grape of Austria, Gruner Veltliner has much in common with Riesling. When young, they are fresh & peppery, with searing acidity. With age, they mellow, becoming rich, nutty and golden; redolent with honeyed fruit.

Nicolas Joly

Based within Savennières in the Loire Valley, Nicolas Joly is somewhat of a hero within the world of biodynamic winemaking. Planted in 1130 by Cistercian monks, the Clos de la Coulée de Serrant monopole forms the heart of the estate. Here, grapes are harvested late, over several weeks or months, and produce wines that are powerful and complex. These wines are now made by his daughter, Virginie Joly, and demonstrate what is truly great about Chenin Blanc.

Aligote

Oft looked over in favour of its more regal cousin Chardonnay, Aligote is capable of beautiful things. The third grape of Burgundy, it produces wines that are soft and elegant. Think hazelnut, lemon, and oystershell.

Sous Voile Whites

Aged under a veil of flor, these wines take on a nutty, saline complexity. They may resemble wines of the Jura, in that they are intensely savoury and are best enjoyed with food.
